

Frisco Arts and Culture Council (FACC) Agenda
August 16, 2024 at 12:00pm in Frisco Town Hall in Council Chambers
Minutes

- Roll Call
 - Present: Megan Testin, Andy Held, Diane Harty Schlaefer, Todd Altschuler, Daymon Pascual, Melissa Sherburne, Andy Held, Vanessa Agee, and Rose Gorrell
 - Not Present- Alison Lindsey and Jamie Callahan
 - Phil Lindeman also present
- Approval of July 12, 2024, Meeting Minutes- approved with one correction- Tuesday is the preferred night for a restaurant crawl
- Frisco Voices Community Podcast: Phil Lindeman, Krystal Media News Director
 - Examples- Brain Injury Alliance Colorado and Krystal 93: Jim Walsh
 - Phil- Krystal could handle interviews, equipment, some marketing, scheduling, and podcast hosting platform, and he would be open to offering youth learning opportunities in podcasts
 - $1,000 per podcast with a possible goal of four in 2024 and six to 10 in future years and the Town would not need to provide equipment
 - Andy Held offered his video services free of charge
 - FACC would identify the community members to interview and what the topics would be
 - FACC would like to hear the stories of people who have made Frisco their home
 - FACC would be willing to pursue and would like an outline of how this would work
 - 45-30 minute podcasts at most and release each podcast in a strategic way
 - FACC to come up with a list of three each and then decide who the first four will be
 - One-on-one interviews tend to be more understandable but certainly interviewing two at a time could be possible
 - Ask if participants are willing to be on camera or not
 - Andy Held and Damon Pascual to do an outline for the next meeting
 - Ask each interviewee who FACC should interview next
 - Goal- preserving Frisco voices and have a snapshot of Frisco and make sure it is entertaining
- Member Updates
 - Hearing that the community would like more sound and lighting workshops

- because the community loved them
- FACC acknowledged that Council's strategic plan included a strong focus on art, culture, and recreation
